

MARCELLUS SMITH

Director of Information Technology

Consulting Specialties

Database Design and Development	Report Automation and Design
Application Design and Development	Server Administration and Maintenance
Process Automation

Education

M.S. – Data Analytics

Western Governors University-Texas

B.S. – Computer Information Science

Miles College

Certifications

Oracle Database SQL Certified Associate

SAS 9 - Certified Statistical Business Analyst

SAS 9 - Certified Base Programmer

MCTS: SQL Server 2008, Implementation and Maintenance

Professional Expertise

Mr. Marcellus Smith is the Director of Information Technology for Analytic Focus, LLC.

Mr. Smith has over a decade of experience in software development, database maintenance and design, network maintenance, dynamic reporting, user-interface design, data mining, server virtualization, product support, and quality assurance in the areas of litigation support, business process automation, and communications.

Mr. Smith has experience in networking administration, including TCP/IP, DNS, and routing issues. While at Analytic Focus, Mr. Smith has developed customized software solutions for internal and external clients.

Prior to joining Analytic Focus, Mr. Smith worked for Energen, Inc. where he handled quality assurance and supported database entry utilizing OMNI, Blackberry Enterprise Servers, and Microsoft Exchange.

Selected Engagements

Designed and developed customized software and database to automate quality assurance process and procedures for a large Federal agency

Designed and developed application to automate and create reporting for advanced statistics calculations and analysis

Designed and developed custom software and database for daily time tracking, payroll, and related reporting