

Professional Expertise

Mauricio Vidaurre, M.S.F. is the Vice President of Analytics for Analytic Focus, LLC. Mr. Vidaurre leads a team of research associates, research analysts and programmers to perform research and quantitative analysis of financial data for a wide spectrum of clients.

Mr. Vidaurre has experience in utilizing quantitative statistical methods and applications to support detailed examinations of corporate financial transactions, cash flow modeling and financial litigation support.

Mr. Vidaurre has been involved with damages estimation, diminution of value, product liability and patent infringement analysis.

Mr. Vidaurre provides detailed research support for mortgage backed securitization litigation including cash flow reconstruction to calculate insurance and trustee losses; the feasibility of utilizing statistical methodologies in the same approaches and related analysis.

Mr. Vidaurre is fluent in English and Spanish and has a working knowledge of Portuguese.

Consulting Specialties

Statistical Sampling	Environmental and Toxic Tort
Stress Testing and Sensitivity Analysis	Disparate Impact
Claims and Damages Forecasting	Risk Assessment
Business Valuation and Lost Sales

Education

Master of Science – Finance

The University of Texas at San Antonio

Bachelor of Business Administration – Finance, International Business and Marketing

St. Mary's University